News from St Botolph's Church

30th October 2020

Dear Friends,

This Sunday is All Saints Day, when amongst other worship we give thanks for all the Saints. But who are these saints? There are the 'Red Letter' Saints from the Bible, there are a great number of saints created over the past 2.000 years and let us not forget those saints of today, who by their lives and actions bring love and wellbeing into the lives of so many people in our world. You may meet saints in our NHS and Care industry, or perhaps in the High Street.

At St Botolph's, our service of Morning Prayer will be led by Michael Foster,
It will commence at 10.30am

We hope that our weekly newsletter is of interest to a wide group of readers, whether you are shielding at home or feel able to be more active outside the home. Your news and stories are interesting to many of us and your telephone calls do give comfort and company to those who are alone. Please do keep in contact and let us have your stories that you may like to share.

This came to our attention earlier this week

With God's love, you can face and go through anything!

Nothing comes into the life of a Christian

without first passing through God's filter of love

All St. Botolph's Sunday services will commence at 10.30 am until further notice.

Next week, 8th November, our service will be led by Archdeacon Ruth Patten, it will include a short act of remembrance in memory of those who have lost their lives in conflict.

We leave you with the Collect for All Saints Day

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord: Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
